Dear Friend,

How 2 Love Our Cops (H2LOC) is a national non-profit organization dedicated to the relational, emotional, and spiritual wellness of law enforcement families. We believe that by proactively educating and equipping the law enforcement family, we help them understand the career and its challenges, and then provide tools to navigate them. This results in safer communities as officers lead healthy, supported lives at home. We accomplish this by providing the following programs and resources:

- Conferences, Educational Resources and Training for Law Enforcement Families
- Crisis Intervention and Post-Trauma Intervention by Trained Officers and Spouses
- Marriage and Trauma Retreats
- Referrals for Culturally Competent Treatment and Counseling
- Liaisons in nine states (and counting) to assist local agencies
