

Dear Friends,

How 2 Love Our Cops (H2LOC) is a national non-profit organization dedicated to supporting the well being of law enforcement officers and their families. We are proud to collaborate with Thrive 10-35, an organization established within the El Dorado Sheriff's Office, that shares our commitment to our vital mission. Together we offer peer support and resources to help law enforcement families thrive both locally and across the country.

Our approach is rooted in the belief that by proactively educating and equipping law enforcement families, we can help them better understand and navigate the challenges of this demanding career. Our trained peers provide a compassionate ear and essential tools, guiding officers and their loved ones through the complexities of law enforcement life. This support not only strengthens families but also contributes to safer, healthier communities.

We offer a range of impactful programs and resources, including:

- National Peer Helpline for 24/7 support
- Crisis intervention and post-trauma support provided by trained officers and spouses
- Access to skilled law enforcement chaplains
- Supporting survivor families at National Police Week in Washington DC
- ICISF classes and certification

Thanks to the partnership between H2LOC and Thrive 10-35, we have built a strong foundation of wellness resources for law enforcement families. Our work has already made a significant and meaningful impact across our local community and the United States. With your help, we can continue to expand our reach.

On behalf of our organizations and the law enforcement community, we sincerely thank you for considering a donation to support our mission.

Respectfully,

Victoria Newman
